RECOMMENDATION - 2008 YEAR-END REPORT FOR THE ADMINISTRATIVE FINE PROGRAM

Attached is a list of political committees and their treasurers who failed to file the 2008 Year-End Report in accordance with 2 U.S.C. 434(a). The Year-End Report was due on January 31, 2009.

The committees listed in the attached RTB Circulation Report either failed to file the report, filed the report more than five (5) days but no more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a late filed report), or filed the report more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a non-filed report). In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties for reports at 11 CFR 111.43, these committees should be assessed the civil money penalties highlighted on the attached circulation report.

Recommendation

2. Find reason to believe that all other political committees and their treasurers listed on the RTB Circulation Report violated 2 U.S.C. 434(a) and make a preliminary determination that the civil money penalties would be the amounts indicated on the RTB Circulation Report.
3. Send the appropriate letters.

Baldermann for Congress
P.O. Box 2862

AF#: 2045

Dear Mr. Lynchey:

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), requires that your committee file a Year End Report of Receipts and Disbursements every calendar year. This report, covering the period through December 31, 2008, was due no later than January 31, 2009. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). Records at the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") indicate that this report was not filed within thirty (30) days of the due date. You should file this report if you have not already done so.

The Act was amended in 1999 to permit the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4). On April 8, 2009, the FEC found that there is reason to believe ("RTB") that Baldermann for Congress and you as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) by failing to file timely this report on or before January 31, 2009. Based on the FEC's schedules of civil money penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $5,500. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.30-11.46. Attachment 1. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. See <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. 11 C.F.R. § 111.34. Your payment is due within forty (40) days of the finding, or by May 18, 2009, and is based on these factors:

Election Sensitivity of Report: Not Election Sensitive
Level of Activity: $157,306
Number of Days Late: Not Filed
Number of Previous Civil Money Penalties Assessed: 0

To Pay the Calculated Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, send the enclosed remittance form, along with your payment, to the FEC at the address on page 4. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

To Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Calculated Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response, including the AF# found on page one, to the FEC's Office of Administrative Review, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. Your response must be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or May 18, 2009. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty. The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on a factual error in the RTB finding; miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite you seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, negligence; delays caused by vendors or contractors; treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; committee computer, software, or internet service provider failures; failure to know filing dates; and failure to use filing software properly. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d). Your response must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(c).

Pursuant to the Commission's regulations, the "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 2 U.S.C. § 437g. 11 C.F.R. § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

If You Do Not Pay the Calculated Civil Money Penalty or Submit a Challenge

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty or submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Baldermann for Congress and you as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA") as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 C.F.R. § 111.45.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2). It will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) until it is placed on the public record in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.42, unless you notify the FEC in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

As noted earlier, you may obtain additional information on the FEC's administrative fine program, including the final regulations, on the FEC's website at <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. If you have questions regarding the payment of the calculated civil money penalty, please contact Rhiannon Magruder in the Reports Analysis Division at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5) or (202) 694-1130. Re: AF2045- RTB
Response of Timothy Baldermann

Dear Mr. Walther:

This letter is my response to the FEC's letter dated April 13, 2009 ("The Letter"). The Letter states that the FEC has reason to believe that I was the treasurer for Baldermann for Congress, and that I failed to file the appropriate reports.

Pursuant to 11 CFR 111.35 (b) (1) (i), I hereby challenge the FEC's RTB finding on the basis that it contains factual errors as it pertains to me personally. The error that forms the basis for my challenge is the fact that I am not, and never have been, the treasurer of the committee.

According to the committee's statement of organization, Christopher J. Ward was the committee's treasurer. Further, there was a filing that stated Kendall Lynchey was later identified as the committee's treasurer. Although, I was aware of Christopher Ward being treasurer for the committee, I was not informed, and do not believe that, Kendall Lynchey ever served in that capacity.

I was a candidate for the United States House of Representatives in the February 2008 primary. Immediately after winning the primary, I announced I was going to withdraw from the race. Exhibit A is my notice sent to the Office of the Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives, declaring my official withdrawal on April 27, 2008.

May 18, 2009

Exhibit B is information I received from my campaign manager, Andy Sere. This shows that at the time of withdrawal, the campaign was actually $6,493.67 in debt. There were no monies raised for the general election.

Exhibit C is correspondence to Andy McKenna Jr., chairman of the Illinois Republican Party, which outlines the agreement made between myself, the Republican Party of Illinois and the Martin Ozinga for Congress Committee.

Exhibit D is a personally signed letter from Andy Sere and Martin Ozinga stating that they were responsible for retiring the campaign debt of Baldermann for Congress as well as insuring that all administrative tasks related to closing down Baldermann for Congress would be completed. This included all the appropriate filings with the FEC.

Due to the fact that 2 USC 434 (a) (1) imposes the obligation to file the required reports on a political committee's treasurer, I believe I cannot reasonably be held responsible for the Committee's failure to file the appropriate reports.

Based on the above, I request that the FEC make a final determination that I have committed no violations and therefore am not held liable either financially or in any other regard.

Sincerely,

Re: Baldermann for Congress

Dear Mr. McKenna:

Pursuant to my discussions with Andy Sere, I have executed my withdrawal of candidacy, and will deliver it to Andy on Monday April 28, 2008, with the Republican Party of Illinois assuring me by letter, that it will assume all responsibility to administer the closing of my congressional committee including completing all reports required by the FEC.

Also, the Ozinga campaign and Marty Ozinga will also guarantee payment of approximately $8,000.00 to repay the outstanding obligations of the campaign committee. All necessary payments must be made to the State of Illinois and the federal government to pay any and all obligations of the committee. There will be approximately $4,000.00 available from the funds in the committee to repay the outstanding obligations.

Please verify that we have a mutual understanding so that we can move forward to close out this committee and move forward with the Ozinga committee.

Very truly yours,

Tim Baldermann

For candidates who ran in 2008 but did not participate in the general election, the reporting period for the Year-End Report spans two election cycles. Supplemental Filing Information is available on pages 3 and 4 of this notice.

¹These dates indicate the beginning and the end of the reporting period. A reporting period always begins the day after the closing date of the last report filed. If the committee is new and has not previously filed a report, the first report must cover all activity that occurred before the committee registered up through the close of books for the first report due.

²Notice that this filing deadline falls on a weekend. Filing deadlines are not extended when they fall on nonworking days. Accordingly, reports filed by methods other than Registered, Certified or Overnight Mail, or electronically, must be received before the Commission's (or for Senate candidates, the Secretary of the Senate's) close of business on the last business day before the deadline.

SUPPLEMENTAL FILING INFORMATION

PLEASE NOTE: The Commission provides reminders of upcoming filing dates as a courtesy to help committees comply with the filing deadlines set forth in the Act and Commission regulations. Committee treasurers must comply with all applicable filing deadlines established by law, and the lack of prior notice does not constitute an excuse for failing to comply with any filing deadline.

WHO MUST FILE

Principal campaign committees of congressional candidates³ (including unopposed candidates and candidates whose names do not appear on the ballot) must file a Year-End Report on January 31, 2009.⁴ Before a committee can stop filing with the FEC, it must file a termination report with the Commission. Committees must continue to file reports until the Commission notifies them in writing that their termination report has been accepted.

METHODS OF FILING REPORTS

Electronic Filing

Reports filed electronically must be received and validated by the Commission by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the filing deadline. For additional information, call the Electronic Filing Office at (800) 424-9530 or (202) 694-1642 or visit our website at www.fec.gov/elecfil/electron.shtml.

Under the Commission's mandatory electronic filing regulations, U.S. House committees that receive contributions or make expenditures in excess of $50,000 in a calendar year, or that have reason to expect to do so, must file all reports and statements with the FEC electronically. Other U.S. House committees may voluntarily file electronically; however, any entity that files electronically, whether required to do so or not, must comply with the electronic filing rules. U.S. Senate committees that file with the Secretary of the Senate are not subject to the mandatory electronic filing rules, but may file an unofficial copy of their reports with the Commission in order to speed disclosure.

Registered & Certified Mail

Reports sent by Registered or Certified Mail must be postmarked on or before the mailing deadline to be considered timely filed. A committee sending its reports by Certified Mail should keep its certified mailing receipt with the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) postmark as proof of filing because the USPS does not keep complete records of items sent by Certified Mail. A committee sending its report by Registered Mail should keep its proof of mailing. Note that a Certificate of Mailing from the USPS is not sufficient to prove that a report is timely filed using Registered, Certified or Overnight Mail.

³Generally, an individual becomes a candidate for Federal office (and thus triggers registration and reporting obligations) when his or her campaign exceeds $5,000 in either contributions received or expenditures made. If the campaign has not exceeded the $5,000 threshold, it is not required to file reports. See 11 CFR 100.3(a).

⁴If a candidate has more than one authorized committee, the principal campaign committee must also file a consolidated report on Form 3Z.

Overnight Mail

Reports filed via overnight mail will be considered timely filed if the report is received by the delivery service on or before the mailing deadline. "Overnight mail" includes Priority or Express Mail having a delivery confirmation, or an overnight delivery service with which the report is scheduled for next business day delivery and is recorded in the service's on-line tracking system.

Other Means of Filing

Reports filed by any other means—including first class mail and courier—must be received by the Commission (or for Senate committees, the Secretary of the Senate) before the close of business on the last business day before the filing deadline.

Forms are available for downloading and printing at the FEC website at www.fec.gov/info/forms.shtml.

COMPLIANCE

Treasurer Responsibility. Treasurers of political committees are responsible for both the timeliness and the accuracy of all reports. They may be subject to monetary penalties if reports are inaccurate or are not filed on time. For additional information, see the Commission's Statement of Policy Regarding Treasurers Subject to Enforcement Proceedings on the web site at www.fec.gov/law/policy/2004/notice2004-20.pdf.

Administrative Fine Program. Under the Administrative Fine Program, political committees and their treasurers who fail to file their reports on time may be subject to civil money penalties up to $16,000 (or more for repeat late- and non-filers).⁵ For additional information, visit the FEC website at www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml.

Report Format. In addition, political committees that file illegible reports or use non-FEC forms (except for FEC-approved, computer-generated forms) will be required to refile their reports.

Electronic Filers Must File Electronically. Electronic filers who instead file on paper, or who submit an electronic report (either by direct transmission, 3.5" diskette or CD) that does not pass the validation program by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the filing deadline, will be considered non-filers and may be subject to enforcement actions (including administrative fines).

IMPORTANT FILING INFORMATION - PAPER FILERS

In response to the anthrax threat, the U.S. Postal Service is irradiating mail directed to many federal agencies, including the FEC and the Secretary of the Senate.⁶ This process has not only delayed mail delivery, it has also damaged and in some cases destroyed pieces of mail. As a result, committees that file reports with the FEC may want to consider submitting their reports by some means other than U.S. mail. Alternative methods include electronic filing, overnight mail service, and hand delivery.

⁵Penalties for late- or non-filing of 48-hour notices are based on the amount of contributions not timely disclosed. As a result, these penalties may exceed $16,000, even for first-time violations.

⁶Senate committees should contact the Secretary of the Senate at (202) 224-0322 for more on filing reports via US mail.

MEMORANDUM

To: The Commission

Through: Robert A. Hickey
Staff Director

From: John D. Gibson
Chief Compliance Officer

Shawn Woodhead Werth
Reviewing Officer
Office of Administrative Review

By: Maureen Benitz
Reviewing Analyst

Subject: AF# 2045 – Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer
(C00439869)

The attached Reviewing Officer Recommendation is being circulated on an informational basis. A copy was also sent to the respondents in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The respondents may file with the Commission Secretary a written response within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendations.

The Committee is a respondent in three other cases: AF# 1795, AF# 1836 and AF# 1910. These four cases are being circulated together, and should be reviewed together, given the unique circumstances surrounding the Treasurer of the Committee.

On October 17, 2007, the Committee's original Statement of Organization was filed naming Christopher J. Ward as both the Treasurer and Custodian of Records. No other individuals are named as Designated Agents of the Committee. This Statement of Organization was hand delivered to the Commission. The Committee's first and only report was electronically filed on January 24, 2008 by Mr. Ward. On February 8, 2008, the Committee's Amended Statement of Organization was electronically filed. The Treasurer was changed from Christopher J. Ward to Kendall Lynchey. Margarita Almanza, the Deputy Campaign Manager, was named as the Custodian of Records.

Based on the response received from the Information Technology Division's Manager, confirmation of the successful upload of the February 8, 2008 Amended Statement of Organization was emailed to paul@pdscompliance.com.

In AF# 1795 and 1836, Mr. Lynchey is named as the respondent Treasurer. He submitted the challenges for these cases, denies any association with the Committee, and says he was named as Treasurer without his knowledge.

In AF# 1910, the Candidate is named as the respondent Treasurer. In Mr. Baldermann's challenge to the RTB finding in this case, he states that he was "aware of Christopher Ward being treasurer" but "was not informed" and does "not believe that Kendall Lynchey ever served" as Treasurer of the Committee. This corroborates Mr. Lynchey's assertion that he was not the Treasurer of the Committee.

As part of his challenge for AF# 1910, the Candidate includes two letters, one he sent to the Chairman of the Illinois Republican Party and one he received from Andrew D. Sere (whom he identifies as his campaign manager) and Martin Ozinga, III. In his letter to the Chairman, the Candidate specifically states that the Party will "assume all responsibility to administer the closing of my congressional committee including completing all reports required by the FEC," that the "Ozinga campaign and Marty Ozinga will also guarantee payment of approximately $8,000.00 to repay the outstanding obligations," and there "will be approximately $4,000.00 available ... to repay the ... obligations." In the letter from Mr. Sere and Mr. Ozinga, they state that they "shall be responsible for retiring the campaign debt" and the Party will complete "all administrative tasks related to closing down Baldermann for Congress." In this correspondence, there is no reference to naming a new Treasurer.

In AF# 2045, Mr. Lynchey is named as the respondent Treasurer. The Candidate submitted the challenge which is identical to the one he submitted for AF# 1910.

Staff has appealed in their conversations with the Candidate to file the missing reports with the expectation that the level of activity on the missing reports would go down and result in a significantly lower or possibly $0 civil money penalty. The Reviewing Officer did this in her December 2008 conversation as well as the RAD Analyst in her May 11, 2009 conversation. As of this date, none of the reports have been filed.

Please note that in a conversation with the Reviewing Analyst who explained that future contacts will be with counsel since it appears he designated counsel for AF# 1910, Mr. Baldermann said he decided not to designate counsel at this time.

After the 10 day period, the Reviewing Officer Recommendation and the respondents' written response, if any, will be circulated to the Commission to make a final determination.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

June 10, 2009

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW ("OAR")

AF# 2045 – Baldermann for Congress and Kendall Lynchey, as Treasurer
(C00439869)

On April 8, 2009, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file the 2008 Year-End Report, a non-election sensitive report, and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $5,500 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. They were notified by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") on April 13, 2009 of the Commission's RTB finding and civil money penalty. The RTB letter, sent to their address of record, was returned; and a copy was resent via FedEx to the Candidate at an alternate address

Respondents' Response

On May 19, 2009, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from Mr. Timothy A. Baldermann, the Candidate (RAD received a copy of the challenge via facsimile on May 18). He submitted an identical challenge for AF# 1910. In the challenge, Mr. Baldermann states that he is not, and has never been, Treasurer of the Committee. Furthermore, he states that he "was aware of Christopher Ward being treasurer" but he states that he "was not informed" and does "not believe that Kendall Lynchey ever served" as Treasurer of the Committee.

As part of his challenge for AF# 2045, the Candidate includes two letters, one he sent to the Chairman of the Illinois Republican Party and one he received from Andrew D. Sere (whom he identifies as his campaign manager) and Martin Ozinga, III. In his letter to the Chairman, the Candidate specifically states that the Party will "assume all responsibility to administer the closing of my congressional committee including completing all reports required by the FEC," that the "Ozinga campaign and Marty Ozinga will also guarantee payment of approximately $8,000.00 to repay the outstanding obligations," and there "will be approximately $4,000.00 available ... to repay the ... obligations." In the letter from Mr. Sere and Mr. Ozinga, they state that they "shall be responsible for retiring the campaign debt" and the Party will complete "all administrative tasks related to closing down Baldermann for Congress." In this correspondence, there is no reference to naming a new Treasurer.

Analysis

The 2008 Year-End Report has not been filed as of this date.

The Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") states that the treasurer of a principal campaign committee of a candidate shall file a report for the period ending December 31 no later than January 31. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(iii) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a)(1)(i). Reports electronically filed must be received and validated at or before 11:59 pm Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on January 31 to be timely filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.19(c) and 104.5(e). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d). Every political committee shall have a treasurer and may designate an assistant treasurer who shall assume the treasurer's duties and responsibilities if there is a temporary or permanent vacancy in the office or the treasurer is unavailable. 2 U.S.C. § 432(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.7(a).

On October 17, 2007, the Committee filed its original Statement of Organization naming Christopher J. Ward as both the Treasurer and Custodian of Records. It appears that Mr. Ward signed the Statement. No other individuals are named as Designated Agents of the Committee. This Statement of Organization was hand delivered to the Commission. On February 8, 2008, Mr. Ward contacted the EFO requesting help with amending the Statement of Organization. Specifically, he called because the candidate name was not appearing on the form. Staff in the EFO assisted him and the Committee electronically filed an Amended Statement of Organization on that same day. The Treasurer was changed from Christopher J. Ward to Kendall Lynchey. Margarita Almanza, the Deputy Campaign Manager, is named as the Custodian of Records. Based on the response received from the Information Technology Division's Manager, confirmation of the successful upload of the February 8, 2008 Amended Statement of Organization was emailed to paul@pdscompliance.com.

On October 28, 2008, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from Mr. Kendall Lynchey for AF# 1795 and AF# 1836, two other cases involving the Committee. He requests that the Commission make a final determination that he did not violate 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) as he is not, and has never been, the Treasurer and has never filed or signed a Statement of Organization naming himself as Treasurer of the Committee. He states that he has never had access to the Committee's electronic filing password and could not, and did not, file the February amended Statement of Organization. He never had access to the Committee's P.O. Box, which is why he did not receive the Commission's correspondence. He further states that he never authorized any individual associated with the Committee to name him as Treasurer.

Included with Mr. Lynchey's challenges is a copy of the Statement of Organization, received October 17, 2007, and the Amended Statement of Organization, electronically filed on February 8, 2008.

Based on the evidence provided, it appears that Kendall Lynchey was not Treasurer, as he has affirmed in his challenges for AF# 1795 and AF# 1836 that he did not sign or authorize the signing of the Amended Statement of Organization filed on February 8, 2008. Neither Statement of Organization discloses an Assistant Treasurer for the Committee. In the challenge to AF# 1910 and AF# 2045, the Candidate says that he is not and was never the Treasurer and references the Illinois Republican Party, Mr. Sere and Mr. Ozinga, who had agreed to close down the Committee; yet no one is designated as Treasurer nor is it clear who may have been acting as Treasurer. Nonetheless, whomever was serving in that capacity did not adequately close the Committee, as required by 2 U.S.C. § 433(d)(1) and 11 C.F.R § 102.3(b), and file the missing reports. As such, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination against the Committee and its Treasurer in AF# 2045.

Staff members from both RAD and OAR have spoken with the Candidate on several occasions, urging him to file the missing reports. In March of 2008, the RAD Analyst spoke with the Candidate at length, explaining how to download the FECFile software and user manual, amend the Statement of Organization (the Candidate told her he is handling everything for the Committee), file a debt settlement plan and terminate the Committee. Furthermore, the Analyst explained that the Committee could not terminate until several issues raised in the Request for Additional Information were addressed. The Analyst clearly stated that the Committee was not eligible for termination at that point.

In December of 2008, the Reviewing Officer spoke with the Candidate in great detail about the Administrative Fine Program, the basis of Mr. Lynchey's challenge, and the missing reports. In this conversation, the Candidate acknowledged having some records, as well as stating that there was activity during the reporting periods in question. The Candidate stated that he did not remember downloading the FECFile software, as the RAD Analyst instructed in March of 2008. It was stressed that any documentation regarding the naming of Treasurer should be provided to OAR with the challenge. Furthermore, the Reviewing Officer emphasized that the reports should be filed and that, based on his description of the financial activity, the RTB fine may be reduced if the actual level of activity is closed. Lastly, the Reviewing Officer faxed copies of the RTB letters, the challenges submitted by Mr. Lynchey, as well as the Summary and Detailed Summary Pages for the 2008 12 Day Pre-Primary Report, to the Candidate.

The last report received by the Commission from the Committee is the 12 Day Pre-Primary Report which covers October 1, 2007 – January 16, 2008 and was electronically filed on January 24, 2008. This report discloses an ending cash balance of $50,414.33. In the challenges for AF# 1910 and 2045, the Candidate includes a list of financial activity that has not been disclosed on the proper FEC form. Based on this information, it is clear that there was financial activity during the reporting periods in question and reports must be filed to accurately disclose such activity.

The administrative fine regulations' schedule of civil money penalties is based on four factors – if the report is election sensitive or not election sensitive, the level of activity on the late report or the estimated level of activity if it is not filed, the number of days late, and any previous civil money penalties assessed. 11 C.F.R § 111.43(a)(2), (d) and (e). The Year-End Report is not an election sensitive report. To date, it has not been filed, thus, the RTB fine was based on an estimated level of activity of $157,306. The respondents have no prior violations. Had the respondents filed the 2008 Year-End Report prior to the Commission's RTB finding, the amount of the civil money penalty would have been calculated using the actual level of activity disclosed for that reporting period.

Staff appealed in their conversations with the Candidate to file the missing reports with the expectation that the level of activity on the missing reports would go down and result in a significantly lower or possibly $0 civil money penalty. The Reviewing Officer did this in her December 2008 conversation as well as the RAD Analyst in her May 11, 2009 conversation. As of this date, none of the reports have been filed.

Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the Committee and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $5,500.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2045 involving Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2045 that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $5,500; and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

Baldermann for Congress
c/o 1938 E. Lincoln Highway, Suite 210

AF# 1795, 1836 and 2045

Dear Mr. Lynchey:

On September 19, 2008 and April 8, 2009, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Baldermann for Congress and you, as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file the 2008 April and July Quarterly, and Year End Reports, respectively. The Commission also made preliminary determinations on these dates that the civil money penalty was $5,500 for each of these three reports based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

After reviewing the written responses and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination in these matters. Copies of the Reviewing Officer's recommendations are attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendations within 10 days of the date of this letter. Your written response should be sent to the Commission Secretary, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. As a result of the anthrax threat in the Washington, DC area, US Postal Service mail delivery to federal agencies, including the Commission, has been interrupted. Until regular mail delivery resumes, you may also file your written response with the Commission Secretary via facsimile (202-208-3333) or by courier at the same address (if you use an overnight delivery service, please use zip code 20004 instead of zip code 20463). Please include the AF numbers in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in the original written responses or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendations. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make final determinations in these matters.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1660 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Maureen Benitz

Subject: Final Determination Recommendation in AF# 2045 – Baldermann
for Congress and Kendall Lynchey, as Treasurer (C00439869)

On April 8, 2009, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file the 2008 Year-End Report. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $5,500 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

On May 19, 2009, the Commission received the respondents' written response ("challenge"). After reviewing the challenge, the Reviewing Officer's recommendation ("ROR") dated June 10, 2009 was forwarded to the Commission, a copy was sent to the respondents and candidate, and is hereby incorporated by reference. The Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that the Committee and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $5,500.

Within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendation, the respondents may file a written response with the Commission Secretary which may not raise any arguments not raised in the respondents' challenge or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Reviewing Analyst spoke with Mr. Lynchey's representative on June 15 who said he would likely respond to the ROR to clarify that Mr. Lynchey was not involved with Christopher Ward, the Committee's original Treasurer. She spoke with Mr. Baldermann on June 25 about the ROR; he did not indicate if he would respond to it. As of this date, no written response has been received.

On July 7, 2009, the Commission received, via facsimile, the paper copy of the Year-End Report which discloses $4 in total receipts and $0 in total disbursements. The report was filed electronically on July 10, 2009. Had the report been filed disclosing this level of activity ($4) prior to the Commission's RTB finding, the civil money penalty would have been $4 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43(a)(2)(i)(A) and (iii) as the schedule of penalties states that a penalty for respondents with no prior violations shall not exceed the level of activity in the report.

The Reviewing Officer recommends, however, that the Commission make a final determination that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $0 as the outlay of additional resources on this case to collect a $4 civil money penalty is not in the best interests of the Commission or the respondents.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2045 involving Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2045 that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $0 (reduced from $5,500); and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

AF# 2045

Dear Mr. Lynchey:

On April 8, 2009, the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Baldermann for Congress and you, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file the 2008 Year-End Report. By letter dated April 13, 2009, the Commission sent you notification of the RTB finding that included a civil money penalty calculated at RTB of $5,500 in accordance with the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. On May 19, 2009, the Office of Administrative Review received the written response from Timothy A. Baldermann challenging the RTB civil money penalty.

The Reviewing Officer reviewed the Commission's RTB finding with its supporting documentation and the written response. Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $5,500 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. The basis for the Reviewing Officer's recommendation was included in the Final Determination Report, a copy of which was sent to you on June 15, 2009.

On July 7, 2009, the Commission received, via facsimile, the paper copy of the October Quarterly report. The report was filed electronically on July 10, 2009. Had the report been filed disclosing this level of activity ($4) prior to the Commission's RTB finding, the civil money penalty would have been $4 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43(a)(2)(i)(A) and (iii) as the schedule of penalties states that a penalty for respondents with no prior violations shall not exceed the level of activity in the report. The Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $0 as the outlay of additional resources on this case to collect a $4 civil money penalty is not in the best interests of the Commission or the respondents.

On August 6, 2009, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation, made a final determination that Baldermann for Congress and its Treasurer violated

2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assessed a civil money penalty of $0 (reduced from the RTB civil money penalty of $5,500). A copy of the final determination recommendation is attached.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. The file will be made a part of the public record pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 111.42(b). Although the file must be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of the Commission's notification, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote.
